

Twitter Thread by Anu Satheesh ■■

Anu Satheesh ■■

@AnuSatheesh5

Beautiful Story of Shri Krishna

#bhakthi

#storytime

Once there lived a Priest who recite glories of Shri Krishna. One day he was reciting Srimad Bhagavatam in a house

A thief entered and hid himself waiting for the perfect time to steal and he heard Srimad Bhagavatam

He was explaining ornaments worn by little Krishna. He described the various ornaments Yasodha mata decorated on Krishna. Thief, excited thought that should meet little Krishna and steal all ornaments. He followed the priest and asked him about the boy, he explained in the story.

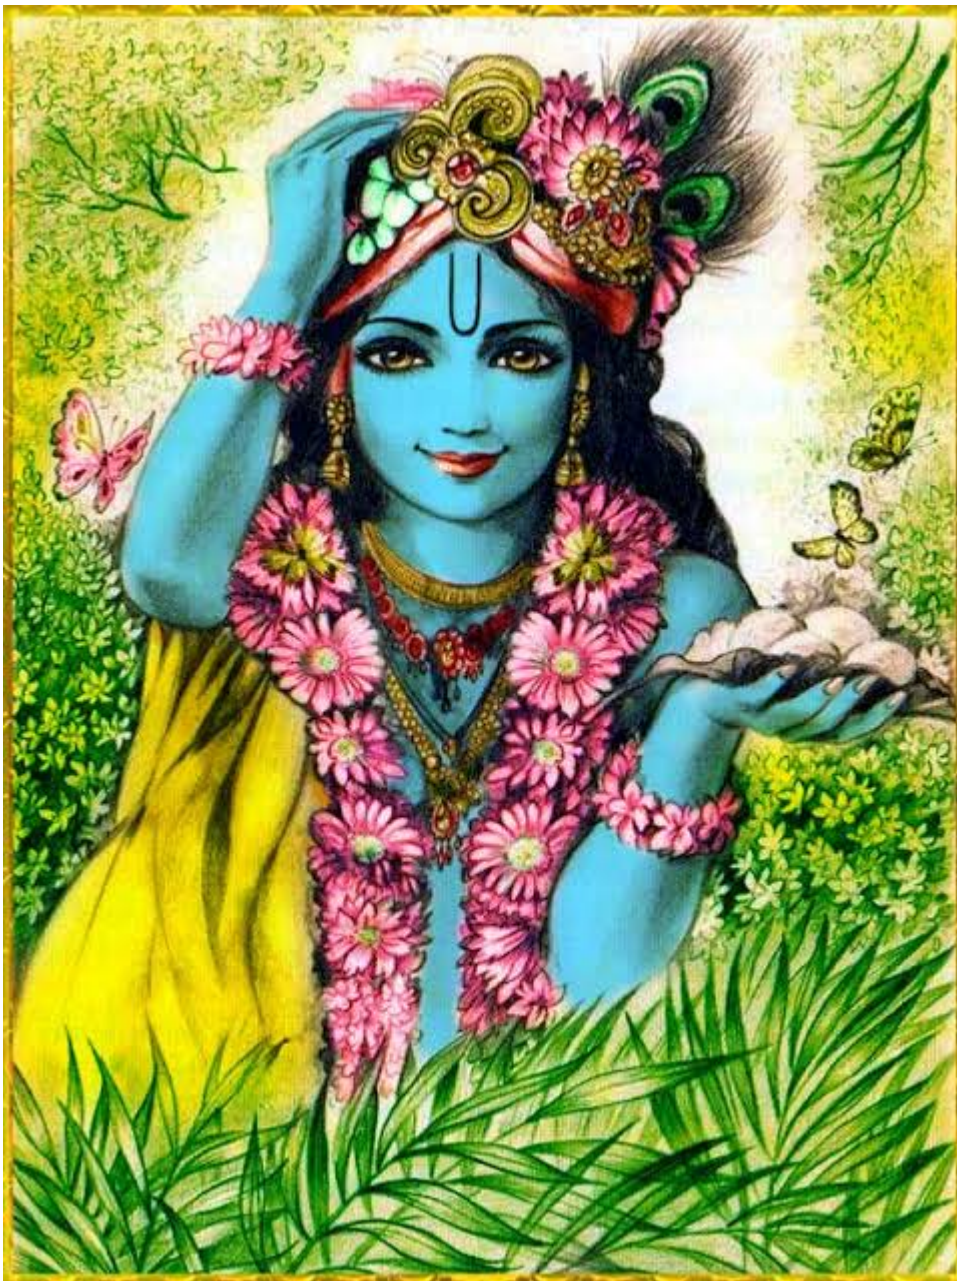

Priest replied, In the town of Vrindavan, on the banks of Yamuna river, you will see him. Thief believed him and set out for Vrindavana. He climbed up a tree and waited for the boy to arrive

He heard a melody of the flute and saw a boy coming. The moment he saw beautiful Krishna he forgot himself and then held Krishna's hand. Krishna reminded the thief the purpose of his coming and said to take his ornaments and instructed him to check his bag. To the surprise of the thief he found a bag full of ornaments on his shoulder. He brought it to the priest's house and told him what happened.

Priest prayed to Krishna with as why he didn't get Bhagwan darshan.

At that time he heard a sound that said "You are reading Srimad Bhagavatam just as another story whereas the thief actually believed what you told about me

I come only for those who have full faith in me.
Bhagwan only needs pure Bhakthi

Jai Shri Krishna ■■

