Twitter Thread by Kansara

Kansara
@kansaratva

1. Which politician in the post-Independence era do you most associate with vile, sinister destruction?

(A very positive, optimistic thread on politics in the post-Independence era. You can be frivolous or serious in your replies, but in either case, think before you answer.)

2. What was the single most important reform in the post-Independence era that never happened?

3. What has been the worst foreign policy disaster in the post-Independence era?

4. If you have to pick the worst decade (47-56, 57-66, 67-76, 77-86, 87-96, 97-06, 07-16, 17-now) for politics, what would that be?

5. When defining religious minorities at the state level, which state is the worst when it comes to persecution of religious minorities?

6. In the next 10 years, which state would fall into shambles when it comes to investments and infrastructure?

7. In the next 10 years, which state would have completely missed the boat on age demographics (young, working population)?

8. In the next 10 years, which city would fall into shambles when it comes to urban development and infrastructure?

9. What should be the right level, such as at the level of nation, state, district, city, village, street, lane etc. to define which group is a religious minority?

10. What is that one greatest achievement of the bureaucracy, if at all, in the post-Independence era?

11. What has been the most glaring gap in the performance of the Ministry of Culture in the post-Independence era?

12. What has been the one ministry in the post-Independence era that has wreaked the most havoc on the progress of the nation?

13. Which state has consistently seen the worst politics in the post-Independence era?

14. Who has been the worst minister for Education/HRD in the post-Independence era?

15. If Narendra Modi were a game, what game would he be?

16. If Rahul Gandhi were a fruit, what fruit would he be?

17. If Arvind Kejriwal were a bird, which bird would he be?

18. If Amit Shah were a song, which song would he be?

19. What are your views on dynasty politics in the post-Independence era?

20. In the next 10 years, what are the technological advancements that India would have missed completely?

21. What has been the worst amendment to the Constitution in the post-Independence era?

22. What was that one event in the post-Independence era which, when you experienced or heard about or learned about, you felt that there is no hope for this country?

23. What has been the worst judicial verdict in the post-Independence era that has had far-reaching repercussions for the nation?

24. As a group within the government, such as politicians, bureaucrats, judges, and police, which one has been consistently the most destructive to the growth of the nation?

25. As a group outside the government but working with them, such as activists, trade unions, journalists, artists, and missionaries, which one has been consistently the most destructive to the well-being of the nation?

26. In the next 5 years, what would be the extent of foreign interference through social media in India’s internal affairs?

27. In the next 5 years, what would be the level of regulations that you expect on OTT platforms?

28. What is that single reform that would give a level-playing field to all religions?