Hinglaj mata temple is in Hinglaj, a town on the Makran coast in the Lasbela district of Balochistan.

It is one of the 51 Shakti Peethas.

The head of Sati is believed to have fallen at Hinglaj.

Wish it will be part of india in future.

The shrine is in a small natural cave. There is a low mud altar. There is no man-made image of the goddess. A small stone is worshiped as Hinglaj Mata. The stone is smeared with sindoor.
