■When emperuman goes out on foot, Adhishesan will be his umbrella,

■When emperuman desires to sit, Adhishesan will be his throne,

■When emperuman desires to stand, Adhishesan will be his sandals,

■In the expansive milk ocean, when emperuman wants to rest awhile, Adhishesan becomes his soft mattress that floats,

■If emperuman wants to see objects, Adhishesan will become auspicious lamp,

■When emperuman desires to recline, he will become the pillow,

■ If emperuman desires in his divine mind to wear a beautiful dress, Adhishesan will be his yellow silky dress which indicates that emperuman is the supreme entity...

Just as golden bar can be converted into ornaments as we desire, Adhisheshan also transforms into umbrella, throne, sandals, float, lamp, divine dress, pillow etc while carrying out service to emperuman and Piratti.

Adishesha, as name denotes, supreme seshan to serve emperuman... Has taken several forms, among which he has incarnated as an avatara purusha taking main role in each yuga as follows :

Kritha yuga - Adishesha

Thretha yuga - Lakshman

Dwapara yuga - Balaram

Kalki yuga - Ramanuja
