It began sometime , a little after the manner in which he handled not only the earthquake disaster , but the speed at which he rebuilt not only the disaster affected areas in Gujarat, used it as a leverage to bring Gujarat up in the map of India ; Congress, especially Ahmed Patel sensed the danger this man could be , not only to Congress , but their hold on people, (read as minorities) and the counter measure ,began albeit slowly. The shrewd and wily Ahmed, began restructuring the original Khan Market gang, (modern India defines them as luteyns), take a Good look at political history from that period. Using, muscle, money power , the connection with Vatican , and the ever subservient sullahs ,the diabolical plan began to emulate, and this sinister plan kept modifying itself , as needed. This man was not bothered, he was only focussing on the welfare of the state, and that hurt them more; by now the commies, the sundry paper maches fell in line and the narrative next was calling him a mass murderer, the carnage created , the hounding began and elevated to an international level , so that it would blunt his growth and may dissuade him and his close circle of political well wishers; he was refused entry into the land of honey and milk (eek),and,the pitch was so strong, Ford foundation , George Soros had all marked him - atleast , that includes CIA, Knesset, Mossad,as well.

These agencies not only read him , their inputs clearly indicated that this man sooner or later is going to head India, and Mossad was the only agency which advised,and rightly so, that he will bring in a change and is unstoppable . This was as early or late as 2009/10;the circus of defaming him went to New heights and still continues - the problem here - is plain and simple - the opposition , in any form - politically, economically, media pressure, carcinoma of visual and print media across the globe deliberately carried (or is it miscarried) stories ...

about him, but one thing was clear - these narratives created - either they hated him or they loved him - no inbetweens.. now coming back to - the hate army had everything at their disposal , nothing was short for them - except none were able to

#READ_HIM and this disturbed them

Then , disturbs them till date. Media cribs he doesn't entertain them, political honchos no longer privy to information - the industrialists could use no lobby , the Babu's began brining food from home ; judiciary is in its ebb of playing themselves out - in short ,they're now perplexed; it's not the beginning nor is it the end; I need to discuss , he becoming the prime minister, the world at large now not recognises that India is no pushover and neither can they take us for granted . At this point let's stop advising / suggesting to the govt.headed by Him, how to run this country. I'm no historian or political commentator, nor am I , even a primary member of BJP but am a nationalist. Plain & simple.
