Recall that AFPF also has a case at SCOTUS - right now.

While they funnel millions into campaigns to influence our political system, they are simultaneously arguing that it would be a violation of their rights to force them to disclose where the money came from.

> Worth noting here that the Koch network (Americans for Prosperity) lobbied against the For the People Act in the first quarter of 2021.
> The report says they engaged with House and Senate lawmakers.
