Another thing about Offc. Fanone from our meeting- the guy is blunt. He directly told my boss, a Dem who represents him, that he was a Republican. The people who dismiss him as a lefty activist are dead wrong. He's a conservative who feels a deep sense of betrayal about January 6

A whole hell of a lot of people missed the key verb tense here: “was a Republican.”

This was the initial thing https://t.co/OWY1RpOU20

> We represent Officer Fanone and have met with him, and I just want to emphasize something that isn't widely appreciated from the story he is telling now, that I asked him about directly:
>
> Officer Fanone was off duty on the morning of January 6.

> Bear that in mind as you listen.
