A black and white line drawing depicting a scene from the Mahabharata. Lord Krishna is seated on a highly ornate throne on the left, wearing a crown and holding a conch shell. He is looking towards a group of men on the right. One man is standing and gesturing, while others are seated or standing behind him. A dog is visible in the foreground on the right. The background shows a palace interior with a large umbrella over Krishna and a fire in the distance. The text 'हिरण्या' is written in the bottom left corner.
