Savarkar describes an Episode of Kambhu Thiya (an untouchable caste)- his son needed serious medical attention. His way to the doctor was interrupted since it was in area prohibited for Thiyas. A muslim offered to bring the medicine as it was fine for them to enter. The condition was to accept Islam but Thiyas refused.

It was the time when Muslims were already preparing for a weaponised revolt. Mosques, Madrasas were already prepared. They were openly appeasing and throwing advances towards the Thiyas to join them in the Riots but in vain.

Savarkar mentions how the entire Muslim population of India was preparing for the Khilafat Movement.

Mosques, Madrasas, all Islamic Centres were training every Muslim for the movement.

Swords, spears, arms, money were collected with mosques being the centre of the distribution.

Now comes an incident of Madhav Nayar, a secular Hindu. He spent time along with his Muslim friends, to inspire them for Swarajya Movement along with Khilafat. He believed in Sarva Dharma Sambhav. He was later chopped into pieces during one of the Meetings.

Head Maulvis in the Malabar Region issued Fatwa to annihilate any Kafir doing Murti Pooja.

An old lady accompanying the rioters entered a house of pregnant lady. The pregnant lady begged to the old woman and pleaded to save her from the mob. However, she instead helped the mob rape her several times who took out her foetus out with a knife and left her to die with her dead foetus dangling out.

Kambhu Thiyas were later forced to eat beef forcefully, his head shaved off and finally his throat slit.

Other Thiyas who refused to convert were tortured the same way, and even mutilated their genitals.

A Khilafat State was established in the Malabar region as per the Gazis of Moplas.

They declared rewards for those who bring them Kafir women. Women sold as trophies and those with the most captured were hailed as Heros of Quam.

Savarkar mentions a water well, filled with dead bodies. The water was nowhere to be seen, as it was stuffed with body parts of Kafirs. Even the surrounding tree branches were hanging with mutilated body parts. Such scenes were normal all over the Malabar region.

Have we learnt something from the Moplah riots and the Hindu Genocide that took place 100 years back?

India was the only country to support the Khilafat Movement in the entire world. Why were the Muslim nations against the Caliphate?

Please think....
