Lucknow or #Laxmanavati ?

■■■■ ■■■■ ■■■■■■ ■■ ■■■■■■■■ ■■■■ ?

According to the so-called historians Lucknow was settled by mulzim nawabs & they called it as "Nawabo ka Seher"

But did you know what the real name of Lucknow was ?

How the hindu history of lucknow changed in the history of Nawabs?

History of lucknow has been associated with the Ramayana period, Lucknow was formely named after Laxmana, the younger brother of Shri Rama i.e. Laxmanavati or Laxmanapur.

According to the information available in various websites #■■■■■■■■_■■■■ which is located in lucknow, now known as #■■■■_■■■■_■■■■■■■ , the cave of Shehnag near this Laxman Tila was demolished by Khilji and later masjid was built by Aurangzeb at this place.

According to the research done by P.Noak, there was a hole in the earth above the Lakshman Tila in which Hindus used to offer water and flowers,because according to theirs, this hole goes to the head of Sheshnag, according to shashtras he kept the whole earth on his head.

In June 27, 2018, 2 BJP councilors Rajneesh Gupta and Ramakrishna Yadav again asked for the M■rti of Laxman to be erected in front of this masjid, then the Imam of the mosque oppose him by saying that it may create disturbance for mulzims in offering namaz and they might didn't like it ..

After a long argument between both the sides ,once again the voice of justice disappeared in the noise of Aajaan .
