They were two different entities with a single soul.

In order to enhance their power, they went to Vindhya Mountains for Tapasya. Their meditation was so intense that the mountain started emitting smoke. The Devtas started worrying because after this Tapasya they would be more powerful. Devtas tried to stop this Tapasya but failed.

When Brahma ji was satisfied with the demons Tapasya, he came down to give them a boon. So the two demons asked for more knowledge about weapons, Maya, ability to transform themselves and grant them immortality. Brahma said to them that except for immortality, he would grant them everything. He told them that no outsider would cause them death, but they had the power to kill each other.

Now that the Demons had acquired immense power, they started ruling the earth in a cruel manner. They killed innocents and destroyed Yagyas. The Devtas were worried. So they created Apsara named Tillotama. They filled her with all the good qualities that were found on earth. This Apsara went to the place of Tapasya, She was able to distract both the brothers by luring them by her attraction. Ultimately both the brothers fought over her and killed each other.

So Narad asks the Pandavas to formulate a plan as to how and when they would stay with Draupadi as husband's. So it was decided that Draupadi would stay with any one of the brothers for a year. If the husband and wife are talking to each other and any of the brother disturbs them, the intruding brother would face an exile in the forest for twelve years.
