Truly one of the most disturbing things I've witnessed in a long time. A Congressman, in a bid to overturn Roe V Wade and deny American women reproductive rights. Publicly referred to them as "Earthen vessels, sanctified by Almighty God." Give me strength.

You cannot watch this and say the United States is not filled with religious extremists. Just because it's disguised by religious platitudes of familiarity, does not make it any less dangerous. Before America tackles extremism worldwide, it would be best to look within.

I'm fairly certain that this Congressman would invade America in the name of women's rights, if he heard himself talking.

Americans in the comments thankfully providing me and the world, with some much needed faith (excuse the pun) right now regarding the future of the US. Thank you for commenting and using your voice for sanity, logic and compassion!

Three hours ago, he then had the AUDACITY to tweet this. This man (the opposite of an earthen vessel, sanctified by Almighty God) is fundamentally deranged.

Biden is intentionally trying to destroy this country from the inside out.

You can't convince me otherwise.
