We have video of Trump calling on his supporters to storm the Capitol to “take back our country”

We have @GOP members of Congress on tape doing the same

We have the entire insurrection from inside and outside the Capitol on

We have tweets and emails from Trump calling on his supporters to attack the Capitol

We have tweets, messages, and video from @GOP members of Congress actively enabling the attack

We have multiple insurrectionists who have pled guilty to participating in this siege

We have sworn testimony from Capitol Police officers that they were violently assaulted, maced, hit with blunt objects & overrun by people who claimed they were “sent by Trump.”

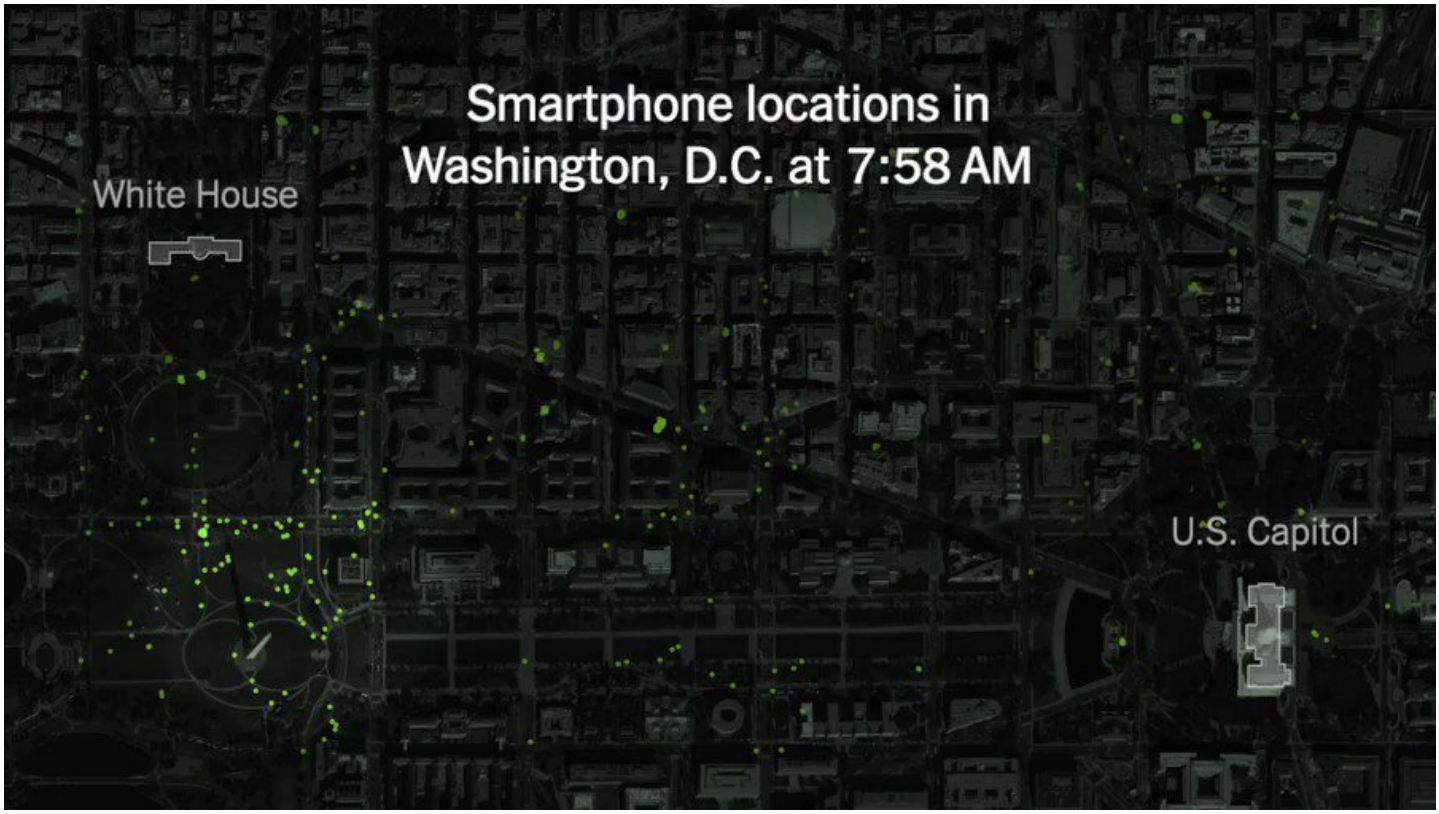

We have an entire political party attempting to whitewash this attack as a “normal tourist visit.”

We have @GOP members of Congress still unwilling to condemn the actions of these individuals or call this what it was: a terrorist insurrection aimed at overthrowing the government and installing Trump as dictator despite losing the election by over 7 million votes.

We have nearly every member of the Trump family on tape calling for the insurrection on January 6th: #TrumpCrimeFamily

This fight has only just begun.

We have cell phone location data literally showing Trump's rally attendants from the morning of January 6th moving from where he was speaking to the Capitol.

We have statements from Trump inciting the insurrection via email, tweet, and video—trying to market it as the "Million MAGA March" to "stop the steal of the 2020 election." https://t.co/tLzMdmWDMo

We have sitting members of the @HouseGOP who gave “tours of the Capitol” to terrorists in the days leading up to Jan 6th, tweeted support for the insurrection & even tweeted @SpeakerPelosi’s movements during the attack.

We have sitting members of the @HouseGOP bragging about their role in inciting the 1/6 insurrection & that they would do it again despite the loss of 8 lives (including 3 police officers) and hundreds of injuries. (cc: @RepMTG)
#ExpelMarjorieTaylorGreene

.@RepMTG in Dec 2020 saying she just had a “great planning session [with Trump] for our January 6th objection. We aren’t going to let this election be stolen by @JoeBiden and the Democrats. Trump won by a landslide.” Subpoena her. Expel her. Prosecute her.

Perhaps the most damning evidence that 1/6 was not only incited by Trump but EXACTLY what he wanted is the fact that he did absolutely nothing to stop it as it was happening, opting instead to watch it on TV with what those around him could only describe as “pure jubilation.”

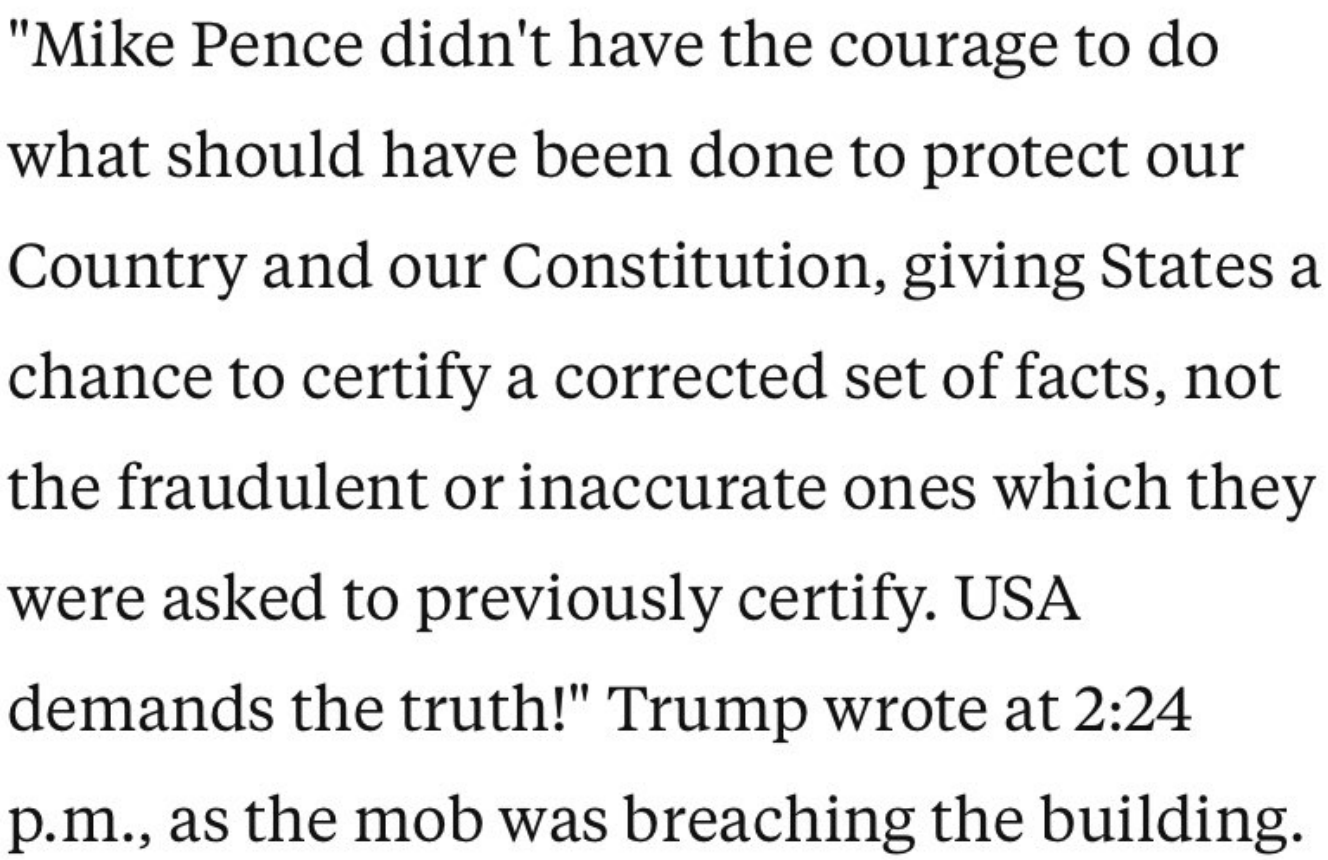

Trump was too busy watching the Capitol chaos unfold on TV to do anything about it, advisors told The Washington Post

President Donald Trump told a crowd in front of the White House on Wednesday, "We will never concede." Getty Imag

When he finally issued a statement, it was criticizing his former VP Mike Pence for “not having the courage to do what he should have”—which of course in Trump’s mind was disregarding the electoral college vote and simply declaring Trump the victor (a power the VP DOES NOT HAVE).

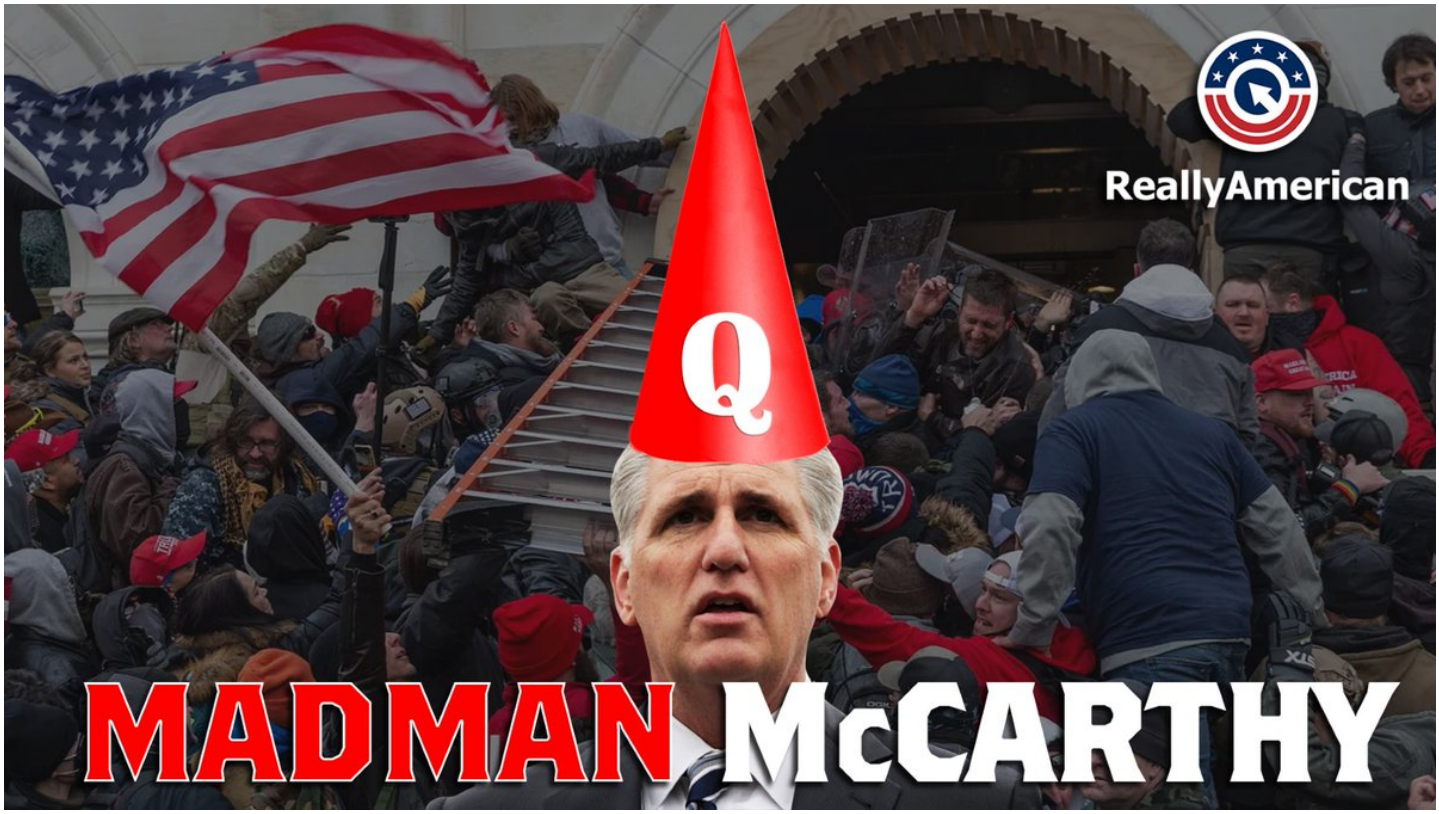

He then followed this up with a video telling his army of cult terrorists “we love you. You’re very special. Now go home. And go home in peace.” (How many murderous terrorists are given the opportunity to simply ‘go home in peace’ after a deadly insurrection?)
#TrumpIsTheHitman

But advisors have said getting Trump to do more than tweet was difficult. At about 4 p.m. ET, they had the president film a video message in which he referred to the insurrectionists as "very special people" and told them "I know how you feel." He apparently ad-libbed at least part of it.

Nothing has been more indefensible than the @GOP's endless attempts to minimize this & defend not just the insurrection (calling it "a tourist visit"), but the terrorists who killed 8 people (including 3 cops) at Trump's direction.

The worst of these efforts to rewrite Jan 6th has been from @GOPLeader Kevin McCarthy; who has repeatedly lied to absolve Trump for his role in inciting the deadly insurrection that jeopardized his own life and the lives of his colleagues.
#MadManMcCarthy

Every person who has testified about their experience at the Capitol on Jan 6th has made 2 things unequivocally clear:

1.) THIS WAS DOMESTIC TERRORISM INCITED BY A REPUBLICAN LIE

2.) THERE IS NO MOVING FORWARD WITHOUT ACCOUNTABILITY
#HoldThemAccountable

Jan 6th was the culmination of 4 years of Trump's inflammatory hateful rhetoric; from his first rally to calling for the assault of journalists to teargassing protesters; incitement of violence through lies and fear was the common theme.
#ArrestTrumpNow

We have @RepPaulGosar who not only incited Jan 6th; but enlisted Neo-Nazi groups to attack electoral offices in AZ to stop the counting of Biden's votes. HIS OWN FAMILY MEMBERS support his removal from office. It's time to expel & prosecute #ProudBoyPaul.

.@RepGosar not only helped incite Jan 6th; he skipped the pandemic relief vote so he could speak at a white supremacist event w/ well known Neo-Nazis. This racist has no regard for this nation or his oath of office & is unfit to be in Congress. #ExpelGosar

We have records from the Willard Hotel in D.C. where Trump's team set up a "war room" for Trump, Giuliani, Bannon, Bernard Kerik, John Eastman, @OANN reporter Christina Bobb, Phil Waldron, and others to plan the Jan. 6th insurrection & attempt to overthrow the 2020 election. https://t.co/LnRg7oqaER

We have confirmed reports from multiple witnesses that the following members of Congress helped plan Jan. 6th:
—@RepMTG
—@RepMoBrooks
—@RepGosar
—@RepCawthorn
—@RepAndyBiggsAZ
—@RepBoebert
—@LouieGohmertTX1
They must be subpoenaed, expelled, & prosecuted

The terrorists who stormed the Capitol on Jan 6th had inside help from @MarkMeadows, @KatrinaPierson, @RepMoBrooks, @RepGosar, @RepBoebert, @RepMTG, @RepCawthorn, and @RepAndyBiggsAZ.

Subpoena them. Expel them. Prosecute them. And #ArrestThemAll

“There’s gotta be something in here we can fucking use against these scumbags. For Cruz and Hawley. I think Cruz would want us to do this. So I think we’re good.” Care to comment on this before you get subpoenaed by the @January6thCmte, @tedcruz @HawleyMO?
