The only trading psychology post you need to read:

=====

This guy gets appreciation and possibly makes money only after he reaches from one point to another.

But if his entire focus is on :

1. Not falling down the rope.
2. Keeps on thinking to reach the other end

Trading Mistakes & Lessons Learnt \U0001f9f5

1) I always keep my mistakes & lessons learnt in front of my screen while trading.
Bcz we as traders tend to commit the same mistakes everytime.

So seeing your learnt lessons everyday ensures that you avoid them.

6/ Always remember: If you can't measure something, You can't improve it.

That's why it's really important to have a Trading journal if you are serious about making it big as a Trader.

<https://t.co/Laem6Hrfil>

A Thread on Trading Journal

A trading journal is one of the most effective instrument's of performance management

The record of Entry, Target's and SL of each trade can enable you to track the efficiency of your system and to review it daily for better output and reference.

9/ If you are an options trader, then this thread from @sarangsood on Finding your edge in Options is a must-read.

<https://t.co/NnwxI3p677>

FINDING EDGE IN OPTIONS

24/08/15: Nifty gap down 250 points & another 250 after that. Previous few months return gone, but since I'm quick to take my losses, was saved from ruin. Before that my only edge in option selling was adjustments & my forever edge of following PA. (1/n)
