Patient stabs doc's wife to death in Indore

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Indore: Dissatisfied with his treatment, a patient stabbed his doctor's wife and son at their nursing home-cum-residence in Indore's Malwa Mill area on Thursday morning. She died, and her 19-year-old son was critically injured.

The accused, 45-year-old Rafiq Rasheed, was caught by locals and handed over to police. He has severe fungal infection and was seeing Dr Ramkrishna Verma for the past few months, say police.

Rafiq arrived at the clinic at 9.30am on Thursday seeking an appointment. He called out for Dr Verma's wife Lata, who was in the bathroom then. He accosted her as soon as she stepped out. Lata told him that the doctor was out of town, which drove Rafiq into a rage and he allegedly started stabbing her. Her son Abhishek rushed to her help and Rafiq stabbed him too, said SP Yusuf Qureshi.

Lata's nine-year-old grandson saw the murderous attack. Neighbours heard the screams and came running. They caught Rafiq and took the injured mother and son to hospital. Lata was declared dead on arrival — doctors counted 12 stab wounds in her chest and abdomen. Abhishek is reported out of danger. SP Qureshi said the motive behind the attack is still not clear, though they suspect Rafiq was dissatisfied with the treatment. Police have also learnt that the child, who saw the attack, told his aunt that there were two attackers — one of them held Lata while the other stabbed her. Investigators are verifying the statements. Lata was Verma's second wife, and the doctor is said to be in Delhi, visiting his daughter from the first wife.

Police are exploring every possible angle. The fact that the accused had come armed with a knife suggests it was planned, and police are checking if he was paid for the murder. Rafiq is a habitual offender and was out on bail in a murder case, say police.

Labrador's death: Vet manhandled at govt hospital

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Thiruvananthapuram: Tension broke out at the Government Multi-Speciality Veterinary Hospital, Peroorkada, on Thursday after a doctor was reportedly manhandled by a group of four persons following the death of a labrador dog, which was brought to the hospital on Wednesday. Dr Anoop, who was injured in the assault, has been admitted to Medical College Hospital.

The veterinary hospital authorities filed a police complaint at Peroorkada police station against Anzar Muhammad of Nilamel and three other persons, who are yet to be identified.

According to hospital authorities, the dog was brought to the hospital on Wednesday. The owner, Anzar Muhammad, said the condition of his dog was serious. Dr Anoop, who was not on duty but came early for his post noon shift, asked for a referral letter. The owner did not give a referral letter but gave the name of a doctor.

The dog reportedly had a history of tick-borne disease. Later, the doctor on duty checked the dog and decided to take the blood samples for confirmation of disease. The owner then left the hospital.

He turned up in the hospital on Thursday and said that the labrador died and it happened because of delay in ensuring treatment and he put the blame on Dr Anoop.

The district unit of Indian Veterinary Association will boycott duty on Friday in protest against the assault on the doctor

The hospital authorities spoke to the owner and the other persons and said that they could file a complaint with authorities concerned. They submitted a formal complaint and asked if they could meet Dr Annoo.

When the doctor was summoned, they reportedly pushed him into a room and assaulted him, according to hospital authorities. Anoop was first taken to Government Hospital, Perroorkada, from where he was referred to the Medical College Hospital.

The district unit of Indian Veterinary Association will boycott duty on Friday in protest against the assault on the doctor. A protest will also be staged in front of the hospital.

The association has called for observance of black day. In February, caesarean of a home-bred pug at government multi-speciality veterinary hospital in Perroorkada had triggered a row with the owner of the dog coming up with allegations of medical negligence.

@swati_gs This is scary. Considering they have a habit of mixing contraceptives in food, what's the guarantee they wouldn't give a wrong medicine.
