Twitter Thread by Anu Satheesh ■■

Anu Satheesh ■■
@AnuSatheesh5

THENNANGUR PANDURANGA TEMPLE
TAMILNADU
Thennangur Panduranga temple is located in Tiruvannamalai district, dedicated to Panduranga & Rukmayee.

Beautiful Salagrama sila of about 12 ft is brought from Pandharpur by Swami Haridas Giri, who wished to have Panduranga murti in TN. Haridas Giri Swamy was the deciple of Gnanananda Giri Swamy. According to Guru's advice chose Thennangur which was known as Dakshina Halasyam

To spread knowledge through Namasankeertanam. Area was known as Shadaranya Kshetra, as six forests covered it. Main temple resembles the Puri Jagannath temple in Orissa. Temple follows Bhajan Sampradaya of North. Panduranga is adorned with the alankaram of Madura King on sundays

A very simple alankara on thursdays where His divine feet can be seen, alankara with silver kavacha & ornaments on fridays and in the form of Venkateswara swamy on saturdays. Vigraham of Achutharaya Perumal, which was brought from Tirumala Tirupathi is also worshipped here.

