Here is the list of Top 5 Free Advanced Technical Indicators that you can use in @tradingview for your trading ■:

Few of these indicators are designed by me.

Also, the last indicator is one of my favourite to pick early momentum stocks.

1/ CPR:

It is a popular indicator of the trading community. One can try it for Nifty and Banknifty futures and options trading.

2/ Relative Strength (RS):

This indicator helps in identifying stocks that are showing strength against benchmark (Nifty or any Index). It can help you to hold and ride the winners.

3/ Ratio Chart:

This plots ratio chart of two stocks or index, e.g. Reliance/Nifty.

It is the same as Relative Strength, and you can use PA on the ratio chart to pick momentum stocks early.

4/ NIMBLR F2F Momentum & Indecisive Candle Finder:

This is based on F2F interview of @Deishma.

This indicator helps you to identify momentum and indecisive candle as discussed in the F2F.

5/ Volatility Contraction:

It is my favourite indicator designed by me.

This indicator helps in finding stocks that are in consolidation and about to give big move soon.
