One more Screener that will help you find some great picks.

Businesses at Bargain but there is a continuous growth in Topline.

Look for Promoters Holding for past 3 years, if they're increasing stake than my friend you may have found a gem.

Also, look at Debt levels

Debt levels are important because they're the biggest spoiler for companies like these going bust.

I have noticed,
Many a times, when promoters increase their stake, the company sits comfortably on debt levels.

The debt level is low compared to its peers.
