Important time for K. Annamalai and the Tamil Nadu BJP, which is up against its first election since the Erode DMK government was established.

Since BJP was once referred to as the 2% party, ADMK has continued to dominate and set the conditions of alliances.

Both ADMK factions are visiting the TN BJP office for the first time to explore an alliance and select a candidate of shared consensus. They are pleading with the BJP to avoid breaking the coalition, which was supposed to remain intact till 2020.

The BJP has noticed this increase in Tamilnadu.

OPS, a former chief minister, meeting Annamalai is a sign of a shift in the NDA's leadership.

Change happens slowly and painfully, not on social media.
