even after doing many poojas. They started praying to Nagaraja to bring an end to their sorrow. At that time, a fire broke out in the jungle around the place of Nagaraja and brunt down the area. Hundreds of Nagas stayed there were injured.

The couple who saw this took care of all snakes. They poured ghee mixed with honey and oil on the wounds and cooled their bodies with sandalwood paste. They did poojas to Nagas using turmeric powder, coconut water, bananas, milk etc. Nagaraja, who was greatly pleased appeared before the couple and said that he would incarnate as their son and would assume the form of Naga and stay here permanently.
