Well that's another top leaker inside the fed. gov. rolled up. Great work, Rod.

People who think nothing is happening, that the McCabe grand jury is just for show, and all the other grand juries we don't know about, when they are revealed, they are just for show too, are in for a rough next couple of weeks.

How many LEAKS did you see about the fact the DOJ/SDNY was about to return an indictment against another major leaker?

Remember, this is for posterity so please....be honest!

You won't see any LEAKS in major news media about the McCabe indictment, either. That will be a total surprise when the mainstream media is forced to cover it. They already memory-holed the fact fed prosecutors are using a grand jury to prosecute McCabe.

The Wolfe indictment hit as a complete surprise.

This Edwards indictment hit as a complete surprise.

The McCabe indictment won't be a complete surprise, the grand jury hearing months worth of evidence against him is already a matter of public record, but narratives die hard.

Still don't know how big I need to make this meme, but so far 2 pics are filled.

There will be more!

Wolfe won't be lonely for long. More of his fellow leakers are going to be rolled up soon.
