 It's Alexander wang 🤔

my friend did a modeling job and Alexander Wang was there they ended up partying together and he kept offering my friend drinks even though he didn't want to drink that much But he wanted to be polite and ended up getting pretty drunk the next thing he remembers is being in a room with Alexander Wang and he had taken off his pants and was making him touch touch him and was trying to make him give him a bj even though he was straight and told him he was straight my friend was barely coherent but he ended up pushing him away and walking out the door he has been scarred ever since

He raped my friend bc Ty pressured him to go there and have sex with him even tho my friend isn't gay

Alexander Wang, is absolutely known for these things you're posting. One friend of mine, who is a trans man, was in a limo for an after party with him a while ago. Upon getting inside the car, they were given water and they felt uneasy about the whole thing bc Alex was making sure they all finished their water. A few moments after, they noticed they were rolling and had been given molly water. This was a regular occurrence, because a year after being told this story, I also heard other people confirm that they also got drugged on the way to an after party. Most of them left, obviously because they were unknowingly on A LOT of MDMA.

Thank you for sharing this! I know multiple male models who went through similar situations and feel uncomfortable coming forward in fear of not working again or seeming "weak" which is so heartbreaking. He puts drugs in drinks or pressures make models into partaking in those sketchy things so that he can get his way (especially by inviting them to his apartment)... he ignores consent and takes advantage of upcoming models. He's so disgusting.

After seeing your stories, I want to add my voice to the many so that Alexander Wang is exposed for the monster he is. Once after a show, he did the same "Molly water" trick on me. I didn't know at the time but I'm bipolar, and the Molly sent me into a manic episode followed by psychosis. His smug "prank" literally put me in the hospital for weeks and ruined my career. Still, in some horrible way, I'm grateful that I had to be admitted to a psych unit that night because who knows what would have happened had things gone as he'd planned.

This sounds like my encounter with him at Bedlam on Ave C a few years ago. He picked me out randomly and wanted to buy me shots. Then really pressured me to drink out of this huge bottle of vodka he was toting around. The memory is a bit blurry but I remember being dragged. Like tugged out of the bar to his taxi. I can't remember anything else from the night but remember waking up in his bed being so confused and he had taken my pants off and had his head down there. I had no idea where or who this was until I saw his face. I woke up so stunned and confused and with a gash between my brows from the bottle he hit me with while forcing me to drink the night before.

It was so scary waking up there. Very lost.

it happened in 2015. he threw a party at the rah rah room for his new store in london. my friend worked at the store so i got an invite to attend.

it was a fun night that went really sour when he wanted to continue the party at his hotel room.

i'm not a big drinker and when i do drink i get very drunk really fast.

i was introduced to him and he took a liking to myself and a few other guys because we were dancing and having a very fun time.

we ended up staying very late and he invited a couple of us back to his hotel room.

anyway he became very sexually aggressive and forceful when i declined his offer to go to his hotel room. especially as i had seen him and a few others taking drugs and getting high.

the way he wouldn't take no for answer and basically wouldn't let me go.

Replied to your story

He roofied 2 of my friends in 2014

A few years back a friend told me he was at an event where his group of work friends were hanging out + in that group was Alex. As the night went on he became keen with my friend (straight) and eventually invited him back to his apartment in NY for an "after party". He went along assuming it would be harmless but Alex continued to intentionally get him way too fucked up and then tried to take his clothes off. He made up an excuse about having an emergency and left his apartment immediately.

He drugged and sexually assaulted me too when I was 18

Fed me molly water without me knowing. Figured it out but by that time it was too late. His friends were in on the whole thing too. They are all creepy and predatory. One of them grabbed me and pulled me into his circle at the club like I was cattle. And I knew I was fucked up after he had drugged me and gotten me super drunk and told my best friend not to leave my side because I didn't feel right.

He took us too a diner after the club and then he asked if we wanted to go to an after party and I was super high and drunk and said okay but only if my friend came with us

And then my friend and him and his friends were walking back to his car with us in front and his friend walked across the street,

Wang had a take on me too. Please leave this anonymous, I am still not in a state to go public with it. So it happened in 2017 in NYC. I was invited to go up to Mr Wang's hotel suite. After he offered me a drink at a fashion event party I attended. I felt honored and got escorted upstairs. Once there he started hinting at stuff but still didn't quite cut to the chase. Few moments later he practically forced me to take off my pants and underwear, as I told him I wasn't comfortable with it he came up close and started rubbing his hands against my private parts and offered me another modeling job for a bj. I ran out feeling devastated and crushed experiencing all that at barely age 18. I still suffer from trauma initiated that night.

so myself and my boyfriend (at the time) were at Brandon Maxwell's very first NYFW show because my roommate at the time was working with him, and Alex hired a party bus to come along afterward and pick up people. When myself and my boyfriend got onto the party bus we were drinking and smoking cigarettes and Alex was DJing and he was drinking a LOT and then when I was dancing with my boyfriend he (at several times) reached down our pants to finger each of us despite us both trying to stop him. This was also in front of several models so at first both of us kind of just froze. Truly a scary predator and i'm very glad he's being outed as one
