Twitter Thread by Natalie Buske Thomas

Natalie Buske Thomas
@buske_natalie

When Congress, MSM operatives, etc were allowed to openly incite terrorist groups (under cloak of "activism", "protest") to commit crimes against us: target lists, biz sabotage, cybercrimes, threats, physical violence-it led to using these groups for other coordinated treason.

Weaponizing peasantry is always to benefit the elite class. So if peasants go to prison and few- if any- big names go down, it will be a tragedy. These people were exploited by gov game play from all sides... left to believe delusional "truths" planted by CIA&friends & also left to believe in their cause by White (Gray?) Hats as well, instead of declaring these Marxists groups for what they really are, and setting right the lies laid out to get people to believe these groups are simply activists. They've been used by all, and their lives are ruined...

I'm not in favor in letting them go. I'm in favor of stiff punishments.
What I advocate for, is INCREASED punishment to all in power who raised these terror groups up as "activists" for the purpose of using as operatives, armies, civil unrest, color revolution, election rigging, and TREASON!

How DARE they use our own citizens against us!!!!
This must be a heavy penalty crime going forward if we are ever to heal as a nation. The first time members of Congress incited groups to rise against us should have been the LAST. Immediate loss of seat and jail.

We have to cut off their access to manipulating civilians to use and discard, tossing them under the bus when they are finished doing what they were prompted to do.

It was never OK to allow them to build citizen armies for "community organizing", manipulating, inciting crime

From relatively minor "disobedience" to larger crimes, how many people were incited to commit crimes via the orchestrated heavy propaganda and long-term community organizing campaigns that steadily built and conditioned people to accept "protest" as excuse for criminal activity?

Color Revolution, civil unrest.
Color chosen for America is Purple. I'm guessing it's a bit of a mockery... as purple indicates a neutral stance between left/right, blue/red, when they are "in it together" against us. Ukraine's color was Orange.
Communist playbook, tiresome.

Anyway, if we want to peel back the layers, one of the turning points is when the POTUS at the time launched a campaign that disrespected the citizens, turned them against each other, and manipulated civilians to become packs of criminals for causes that were sometimes staged.

Using shame to silence dissent ("bigot", "racist", etc.), they were very successful in dividing Americans, grooming them to accept increasingly more levels of tyranny. Enslaved by crime, unfairness, injustice, deception, illegal mandates, and now stolen votes, it has worked well

These plots are global, and repeat in all targeted sovereign nations. It's not about the individual quirks, personalities, politics and culture of each nation. It's about DESTROYING whatever makes the citizens of those nations feel warm and fuzzy about remaining sovereign.

So, while it seems a fight that is American, it is not. Bizarre new type of World War, that hasn't been officially declared, & is nonetheless tearing us apart. Many civilian casualties & Collateral Damage, as well as mil, agent, pol/gov, and elite, elite-connected covert targets

Not saying anything you don't already know, but it helps when we put things into words and show each other that we see things as they are.
It helps break through the haze of propaganda that makes us feel alone and divided.
We are neither alone nor divided. Numbers are on our side

Going forward, showing great love and empathy for our fellow citizens will help us stay strong against forces that will always seek to find cracks... to find the vulnerable... and manipulate those people to weaponize them against the rest of us.
NO! HANDS OFF OUR CIVILIANS!

I'd like to see new legislation that has stiff penalties for politicians and media who commit crimes against the populace.
No character defamation, libel/slander, incitement, doxxing, targeting, etc...!
We need greater protection from treasonous attacks upon the populace.