And so; how much less corrupt is the new “democratic” govt of #SouthAfrica. Like;as far as I know, no major hospital has been built in 30yrs. Infr projects are ignored. There’s no mgmnt of anything needing mgmnt. Kids have dark ages pit toilets. And ATROCIOUS teachers/curriculums

Jails haven’t been built; or nowhere near what’s needed; that’s for sure■■And illegal immigrants reign free in the untaxable underbelly they don’t care about. And it’s not coz they’re stupid. It’s a system to hide corruption in. And to keep voters where they were!

ie: Unable to think critically; without enough information/education. #ThoughtControl And we ALL, the victims of the other side of the SAME placeholder blame game racism card. Still. Like in #Apartheid. Actually.

And then it’s “Afrikaners” who are a problem. Well; Mandela wanted a new start for everyone; his message was the vision of a rainbow nation. 1995 was an euphoric year filled with hope■■And then as soon as he was out the way, BEE etc started; and the campaign to blame whites for the STATE NOT DOING ENOUGH. Like if you’re a whizz kid you’ll be hired. Duh. Who doesn’t LOVE a whiz kid. I was never able to resist them. Across the colour spectrum. Folks weren’t not hiring blacks because of racism. It was coz of the lack of qualifications/know how etc. then Indians, better education, became targets of you’re no longer black, as they were starting businesses/getting the jobs. From humble beginnings too; but BETTER education. And now; 27yrs later; the white minority feel threatened constantly,

& guilty for their “ancestors” and young black kids are now “fighting the apartheid” they know not much of. Coz of propaganda. Just like the #apartheid police state. You can’t have this policy/that law/restrict this and that to mask that you actually get NOTHING WORTHWHILE DONE

Just jump in and do the bloody work to raise up your people ALREADY, #Tsotsis: and reconciliation/true Ubuntu will rise up with that■■How can it not■It’s all about OBLITERATING POVERTY & IGNORANCE. NOT TENDERPRENEURS “fake”BEE scams benefitting politicians wives’ shelf companies and the mega corporates buying them a beer at the #SaxonwoldShebeen■■Like; did you read about the city council who are understaffed but they can’t find ANY skills. Like; how ridiculous■■ #EducationTrumpsItAll

Like; HELLO: why are you fighting #Apartheid when it ended 27yrs ago■
