/1 This is a chronicle of @RepTedBudd's twitter feed since the election. He tweeted more than 25 times about the lack of election integrity and continued to push a LIE of voter fraud in support of Trump's narrative the election was stolen. It's a long thread.

/2 However, Budd never once said anything about the exhaustive court cases that never found any fraud. Budd sent a letter to AG Barr to investigate. Barr saw no need to do so and saw no evidence of widespread fraud. Yet, Budd refused to even mention this fact.

/4 Why would you ask someone to look into something but refuse to acknowledge that they told you there's nothing to see? Because your agenda is to sow doubt in a free and fair election. The effects exploded on Jan 6th when the insurrectionists tried to stop the Electoral count.

/5 We must hold these men and women accountable. They are dangerous and now people are dead because of them.

/6 - On Nov 7th, Budd starts with there is nothing wrong with making sure all legal votes are counted. This post makes you think there were illegal votes cast.

/7 - On Nov 9th Budd tweeted 2 comments building his propaganda that if we can spend two years on Russia collusions and then tweets that AG Barr is looking into the "Allegations"

Congressman Ted Budd @RepTedBudd · Nov 9, 2020

If we can spend two years investigating Russian collusion conspiracy theories, we should be able to take the time to #CountEveryLegalVote.

The Honorable William P. Barr
Attorney General
U.S. Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Ave, NW
Washington, DC 20530

Dear Mr. Attorney General:

We urge you to review concerning reports involving election software and hardware used by states and counties during the 2020 general election. Many of our nation's leading experts in mathematics, computer science and statistics are already finding anomalies when analyzing the data from vote counts across the United States. These anomalies coincide with reports of votes being switched or deleted entirely. Some officials are quick to describe these events as software "glitches" or clerical errors. This may be the case but reports with remarkable elucidation are suggesting otherwise.

For example, a clerk in Antrim County, Michigan, initially reported the Democratic Presidential nominee beating President Trump by approximately 3,000 votes. However, after manually entering the results from printed tabulated tapes, the results flipped and had President Trump ahead by about 2,500. The county uses Dominion Voting Systems equipment. This same equipment is used by most of the other Michigan counties, including Wayne County. It is also used by many counties located in 28 states, including the battleground states of Arizona, Georgia, Michigan, Nevada, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin.

Another software program used for reporting election results is Scytl's Clarity Elections' Election Night Reporting system. Clarity is used by the news media for vote counting and reporting results. According to Scytl's website, the Clarity service is provided for 28 states. In 2019 there were reports of alleged anomalies of Clarity's reporting during the gubernatorial race in Kentucky. During a CNN broadcast of the race, there appeared to be a decrease of 560 votes for the Republican candidate and an increase of 560 votes in favor of the Democratic candidate. It's just one example identified of votes decreasing for the Republican candidate using that system.

It is also worth noting that the corporate headquarters for both companies are located outside the United States – Dominion Voting Systems is located in Toronto, Canada, and Scytl's headquarters is located in Barcelona, Spain. Our nation's elections system should not be dependent on software and voting machines supplied from foreign companies. This arrangement does little to reassure the American people about foreign interference in our machines amounts to disenfranchising the votes of thousands or perhaps tens of thousands of Americans. And, if proven to be intentional this amounts to vote tampering and fraud. I would urge the Department of Justice to fully investigate these matters with expediency as the integrity of the vote is the foundation upon which our Democrat Republic is built. If our electoral process is corrupted, then everything is at risk.

The best way to ensure confidence in our elections is through greater transparency. To provide no doubt in the integrity of our nation's election process, we urge the Department of Justice to investigate these allegations of widespread systemic election fraud involving the use of questionable foreign software and hardware. With such a closely divided nation, Americans need to be assured that their government is listening to their concerns and places a high priority on ensuring transparent and fair elections.

Thank you for your attention to our request. We look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Bill Posey

/9 - On Nov 13th, he does a video attacking Democrats saying they don't want to admit that Trump has the right to investigate Voter Fraud (this tweet is designed to make you think there is fraud.)

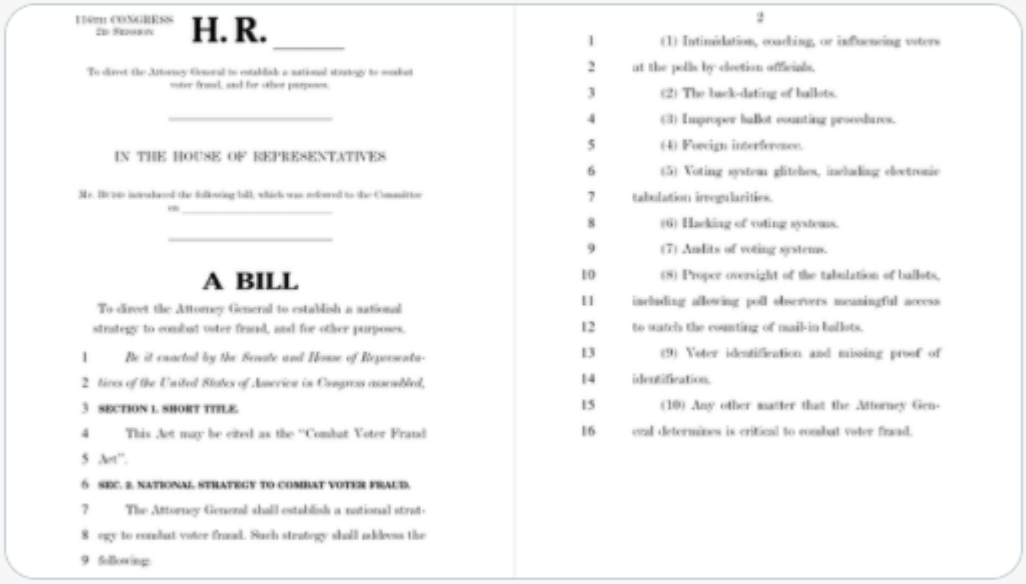

/10 - On Nov 18th, he brags about introducing a bill to combat voter fraud once and for all. (psst that bill died in the 116th Congress)

Congressman Ted Budd @RepTedBudd · Nov 18, 2020

Today I introduced the Combat Voter Fraud Act.

It directs the DOJ to come up with a plan to end voter fraud ONCE AND FOR ALL!

It's time we have one national strategy when it comes to protecting election integrity.

Washington spent years investigating conspiracy theories about Trump/Russia collusion.

We should be able to take a few weeks to make sure every legal vote is counted and all illegal votes are thrown out.

/11 - On Nov 19th, he retweets the Koch Brother's Heritage foundation - who I might add is famous for their own false propaganda. The articled uses trigger words like "every vote must count" and "patriots." Well every vote was counted. @JoeBiden won.

/12 - Budd must have decided to take off for Thanksgiving. He didn't tweet until Dec 2nd - he retweets Rep. Warren Davidson bemoaning AG Barr must ID, prosecute, and correct the fraud of 2020. (Again no Fraud)

/13 - On Dec 3rd, he retweeted the right wing pod-cast Blunt Force Truth thanking him for being on their pod-cast and hoping he has a speedy recovery from #Covid19.

I wished him a speedy recovery, he didn't retweet it. I wonder why?

/14 On Dec 4th, while he's suppose to be recovering from #Covid19 - he's pushing Rep. LaMalfa's bill to "count all legal votes." More false flag comments that the election was fraudulent.

Congressman Ted Budd @RepTedBudd · Dec 4, 2020

Common sense steps we can take RIGHT NOW to achieve election integrity:

- Require signature verification on all ballots.
- Require ballots be delivered by Election Day.
- End ballot harvesting.

We need @RepLaMalfa's Election Certainty Act. #CountAllLegalVotes

/15 On Dec 9th, Budd is saying the DOJ needs to listen to #WethePeople claiming they have concerns, and how he is glad another house member is joining his #SeditionCaucus. More false narratives supporting Trump's claim of election fraud.

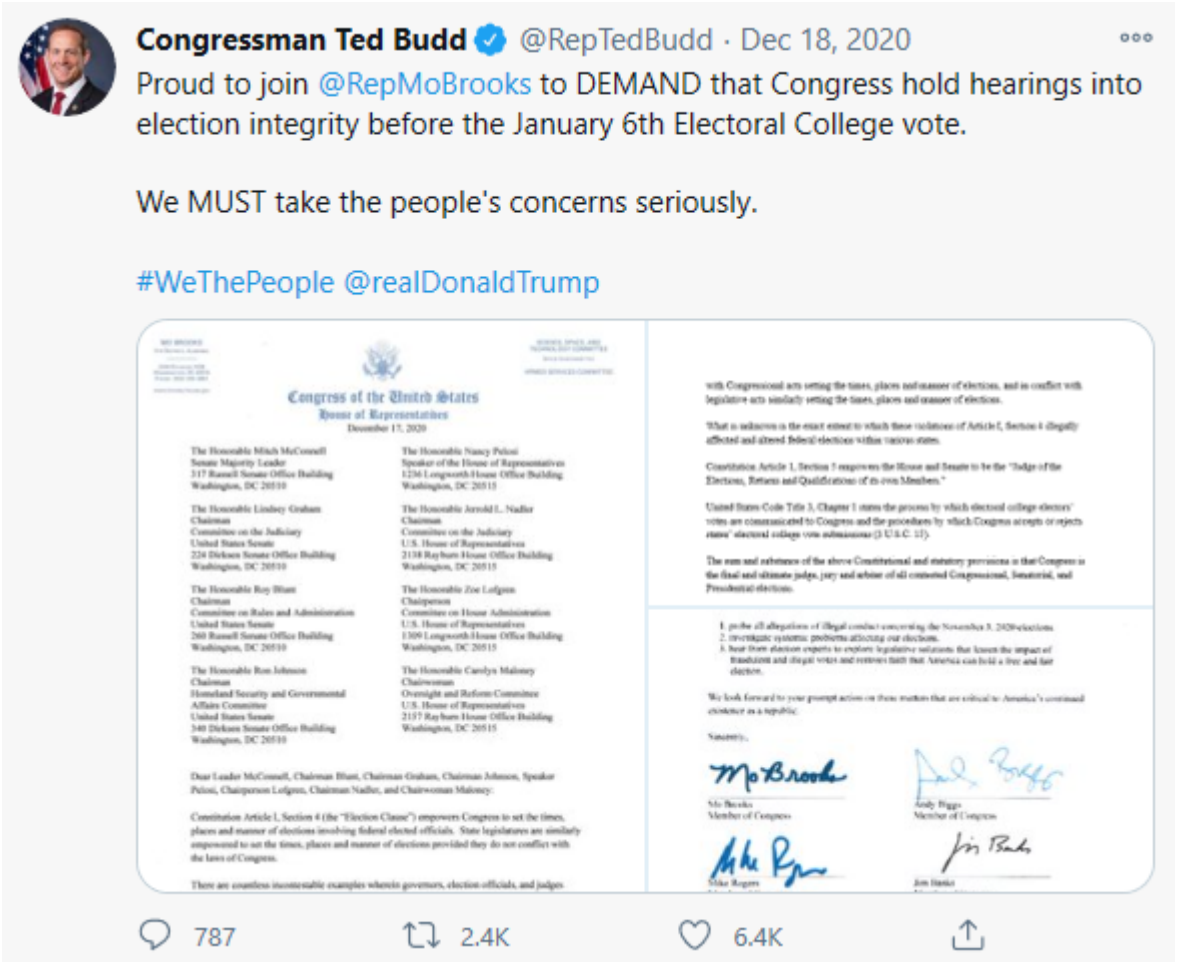

/16 On Dec 11th, now Budd is claiming there are millions of Americans do not have faith in the election. #ComeOnTed for the last month you've pushed propaganda that there is fraud. You're stoking the Trump Lies.

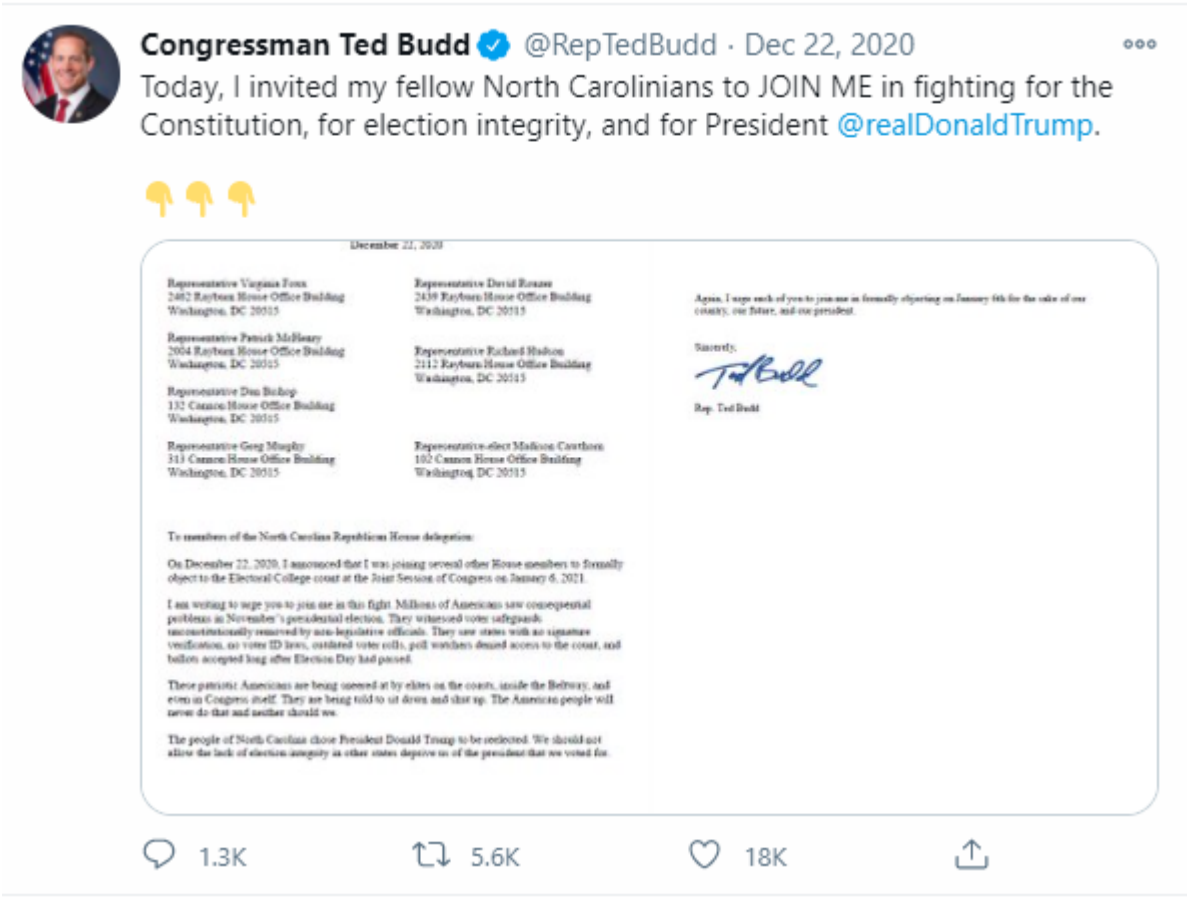

/17 Again on Dec 11th, you tweet saying #SCOTUS should hear the Texas Case. Psst they refused to hear the case. What happened to your big "States Rights" position? Why are you interfering in other states?

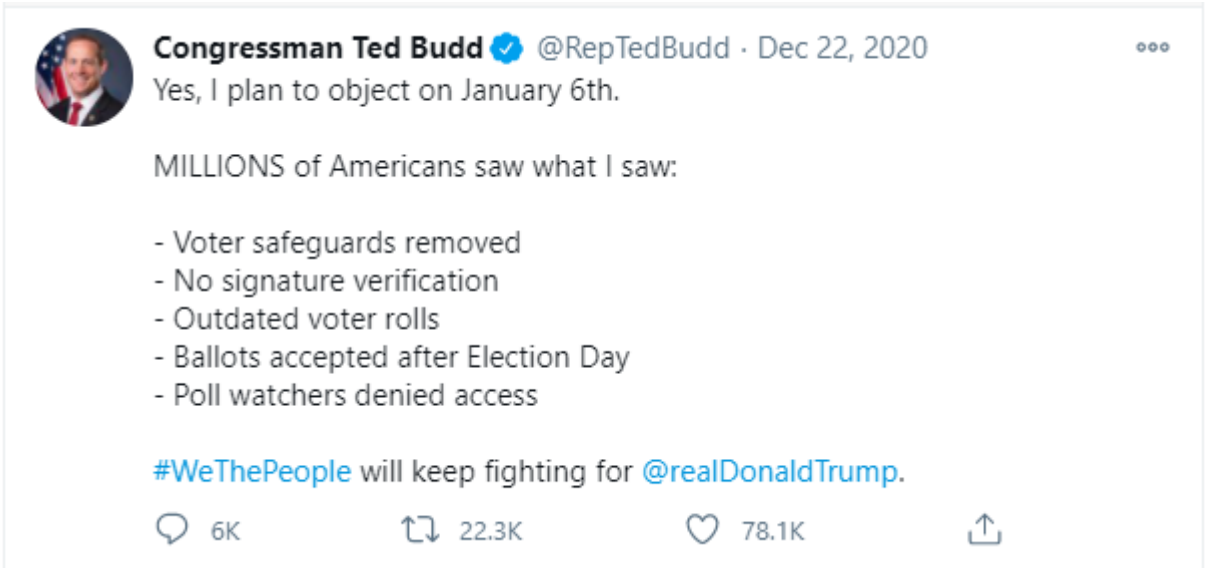

/18 On Dec 18th, Budd is bragging how proud he is to support Rep. Mo Brooks that Congress hold hearings before Jan 6th. He signed the letter.

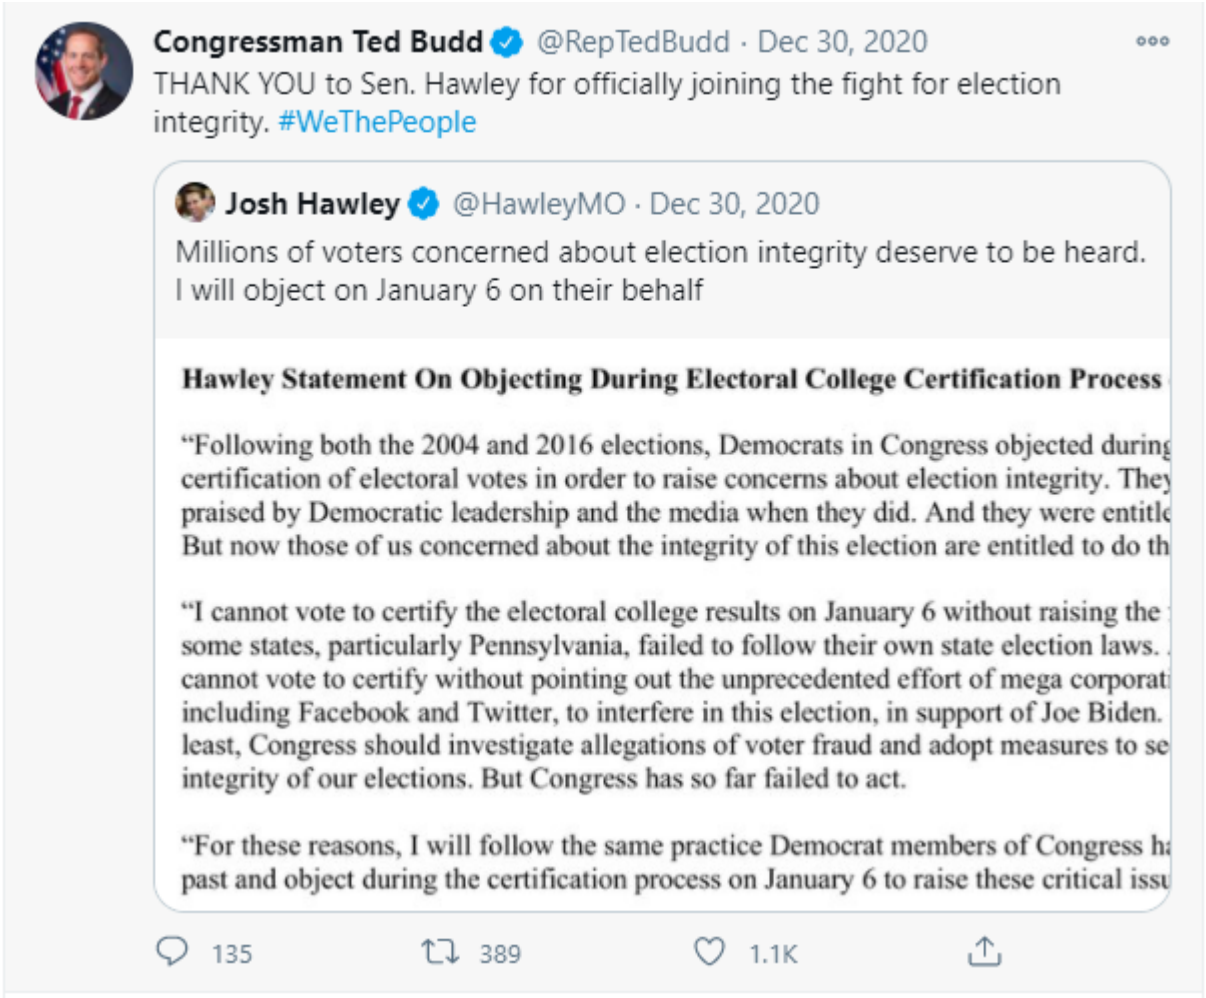

/19 On Dec 22nd, He urges his fellow Republican NC Rep's to join his seditious fight for the Constitution and election integrity. Why didn't he ask Democrat's to join? Foxx, Bishop, Murphy, Rouzer, Hudson and Cawthorn joined the #NC #SeditiousSeven and #SeditiousCaucus

/20 On Dec 22nd, Budd proudly brags "Yes, I plan to object on January 6th." He said millions saw what I saw. #ComeonTed - What did you see Budd? It was a fair election. No Fraud. Still supporting Trump's lies.

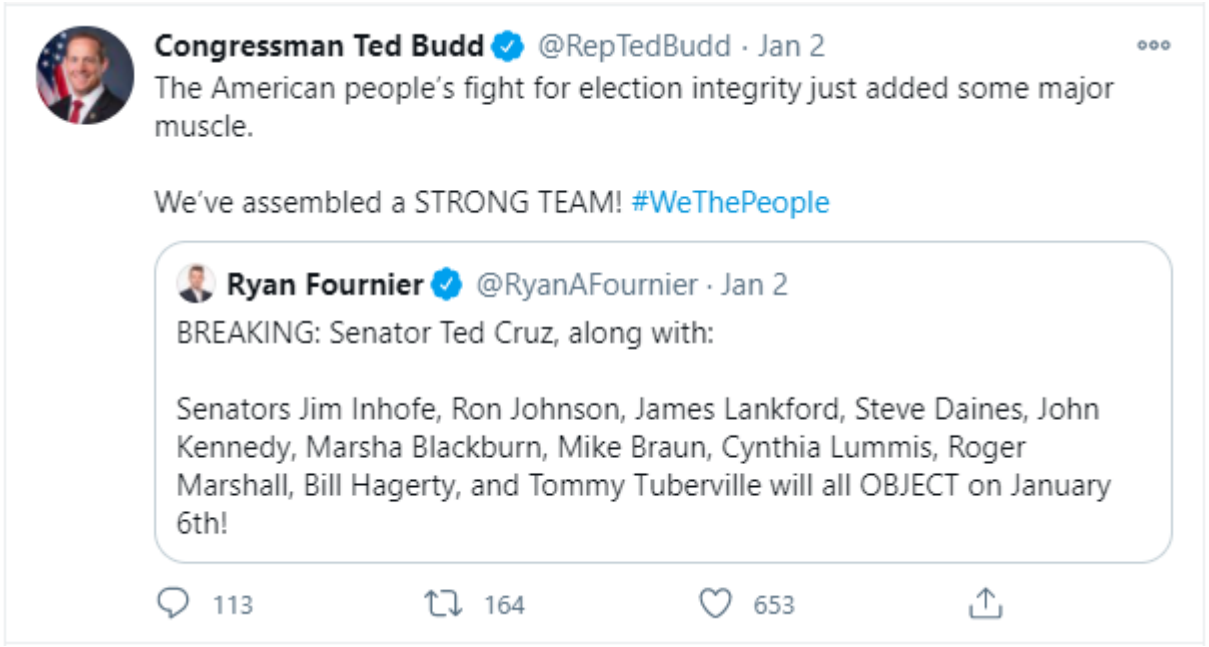

/21 On Dec 30th, he is sending thanks to Sen. Hawley for joining the fight. Pushing the Trump Lies. Pouring more gas on the #WeThePeople claims of voter fraud.

/22 On Dec 31st, he's tweeting about how their cause has went from the few liars to many more liars. Great to see it #wethepeople.

/23 On Jan 2nd, bragging about adding more major muscle. He's just adding more Trumpet's who are pushing the lie of election fraud. There was no election fraud. 60 Court cases were denied due to lack of evidence.

/24 On Jan 4th, Budd is attacking Democrats for not supporting election integrity. Claiming hypocrisy. Even wrote a letter. Where is his letter to Sen. Mitch McConnell for refusing to bring to a vote the House bills to protect our election integrity. Such hyprocrisy

Congressman Ted Budd @RepTedBudd · Jan 4

Congress of the United States

The Honorable Nancy Pelosi
Speaker of the House of Representatives
Washington, D.C., 20515

Dear Speaker Pelosi,

As you are aware, I, along with dozens of my colleagues are planning to lodge formal objections to the Electoral College count at the Joint Session of Congress on January 6, 2021.

I am writing to highlight the bipartisan nature of the fight for election integrity. Not too long ago, prominent Democrats in the House expressed similar sentiments to the ones we will be putting forward on January 6th, starting with yourself. You said in early 2019 that one of the goals of Democrats' majority was to, "restore faith in government, so that people can have confidence that government works for the people." I would submit that standing for election integrity would be a great place to start.

Other members of your conference have expressed concerns about our elections. Rep. Barbara Lee (D-CA) said in 2017 that, "History has shown us that democracy is fragile. It is our duty as members of Congress to protect the integrity of our electoral process."

Rep. Sheila Jackson Lee (D-TX) also laid out a thorough defense of election integrity just four years ago: "Because we are all called upon to bear witness to the counting of electoral votes does not mean our role is to be passive observers. On the contrary, the Constitution and the law, specifically Section 15 of the Electoral College Act, 3 U.S.C. § 1 et seq., vests in Representatives and Senators the power and responsibility of objecting to the counting of any vote cast by an elector," and she continued, "the Constitution devolves this solemn duty upon the people's representatives, the Congress, because the linchpin of representative democracy is public confidence in the political system, regime, and community. That confidence in turn rests upon the extent to which the public has faith that the system employed to select its leaders accurately reflects its preferences. At bottom, this means that all citizens casting a vote have a fundamental right and reasonable expectation that their votes count and are counted."

Similar objections were made in 2001 and 2005 by dozens of Congressional Democrats including Sen. Barbara Boxer (D-CA).

This is not about an election between President Trump and former Vice President Biden. This is about the fact that tens of millions of our fellow Americans do not have confidence that their vote was properly represented. For the sake of our country and the future of our democratic process, I would urge you to convince members of your conference to join us. That would send a powerful message, that both parties still believe that every American has the right to vote and have that vote legally counted.

Sincerely,

Rep. Ted Budd
