Her body count
Part 3

Signs she's had sex with 8 to 19 men°

These women are the most stressful

Their views about love, dating, relationships and sex have been dashed upon the rocks of reality

This leaves them typically angry and cynical about men

Here's how to spot them...

1. They are cautious and hate the fact that they may love you

2. can fall in love quickly but will fight it all the way

3. the most capable of drama at this stage

4. They are usually suspicious and wouldn't believe anything you tell them

5. They try to control themselves...

Other times they let themselves go recklessly

6. Sex for them is purely physical, but she may or may not like this

7. Has sexual preferences

8. She hates the fact that sex doesn't equate to love

These girls are becoming more aware of the reality of life, sex and love and they hate the fact that things are not as they seem. They haven't completely accepted things yet and this is what makes them upset.

If this girl has fast sex with a guy and he doesn't immediately want a relationship with her, she'll hate him for not seeing how amazing she is after she got intimate with him

If this girl goes on a few dates with a guy and can't get him to commit, she'll feel he's wasted her time or has failed to deliver on his 'promise', whether or not he actually promised her commitment

These girls are more likely to cheat. Very much so. But... Instead of viewing it as their fault, it will manifest as blame

They will blame their boyfriend or husband

These women are the loudest set of women whom are against people asking women how many body counts they have.

They feel they've got something to hide and they want to cover it up

The woman with 0 to 2 partners or 3 to 7 don't really bother about covering up their body count

They don't feel they've fucked many men or they may feel a bit embarrassed

They aren't good for relationships

Unless you want to spend your time handling relationship drama and the likes

These women need to work out their issues themselves and acceptance of the world will only come to them with time

They feel bad and they'll make you feel bad too
