I know how much you guys like these, so here's a simple breakdown of how I look for short-term swing positions w/ @TrendSpider and @unusual_whales

With these, I'm looking to ride high-volume momentum w/ any actionable signal, as long as there are multiple trend confirmations.

Unusual Whales is an online tool that allows you to follow the flow of the entire options chain and catch unusual trades by large whales as they happen in real-time! Wanting to save on a plan? Use the link in my bio to earn yourself a discount, or use my code "TRSTN"!
